COMMANDANT'S COMMENTS
James Cox

Tar Heel Detachment,

It was great seeing everyone last night. We had several visitors which I believe will become members of our outstanding detachment. We got a lot accomplished last night with catching up on the paymaster reports from June – September. Thanks to everyone who volunteered at our Wal-Mart fundraiser. The total funds raised were 1177.25. Those monies along with an additional $2000 will be directed to Hurricane Florence victims in the Jacksonville and Swansboro areas.

There is a Beirut Observance ceremony in Jacksonville on October 23, 2018 which begins at 1030. There is a dinner at 1700 which cost $30. The guest speaker is going to be Retired CMC General Al Gray. If you are interested in attending, please let John Dilday know at johndilday2013@gmail.com.

We are scheduling an audit during October so if you would like to assist please John Staley know. His email address is jstaley8@nc.rr.com. We have several future events on the horizon such as the Marine Corps Birthday Ball and the Veterans Day parade. You can get tickets for the Detachment Ball by contacting Jr. Vice Randal Rempfer at det733jrvice@gmail.com. We are still in need of volunteers for the MC Ball. Everyone have a blessed and wonderful month. See you at one of the upcoming events.

A Day the Shook the Corps

"They Came in Peace"

23 October 1983: At 0622 an explosive-laden truck slammed into the BLT headquarters building in Beirut, Lebanon, where more than 300 men were billeted. The massive explosion collapsed the building in seconds, and took the lives of 241 Americans--including 220 Marines. This was the highest loss of life in a single day for Marines since D-Day on Iwo Jima in 1945.

To Honor a Pioneer

While attending the 100 years of women in the Corps celebration in Washington DC, I was privileged to be present when the Commandant spoke at the dedication of the monument erected in St Paul's Cemetery, Rock Creek Park to honor the very first woman to enlist in August 1918. Previous to Women Marines Association raising money for this monument, Opha May Johnson had no marker on her grave. Mrs. Johnson served until the end of WWI, and then continued in government service as a civilian. She was proud of her service, and was the first of the 306 women who were Marines in "the Great War".

Jr. Vice Commandant's Comments
Randal Rempfer

Semper Fi Marines,

First, I would echo Commandant Cox's sentiment on seeing everyone at the meeting. I especially want to thank those members who have stepped us and indicated their willingness to participate in the Ball Ceremony.

We have secured the full venue for the Ball (larger ball room setup) and will be having two (2) pre-Ball meetings/practices. The first will be a planning meeting on Saturday, 10/27/18 @ 9:00am (this will be a planning meeting). The second will be on Saturday, 11/03/18 @ 9:00am (this will be a walk-through rehearsal).

Once again, thank you to the following Marines for their participation:

- Russ Oliver, Master of Ceremonies
- Al Pasquale, Color Guard
- Earl Linthicom, Color Guard
- Kevin Jobst, Cake Escort
- Toby Roberts, Check-in table
- Jim Lewis, Check-in table
- Narrators
  - John Booth, Commandant's Message
  - Pam Thomas, MIA/POW Message
- Jason Hall, Chaplain
- Patrick Smith, DJ/Music
- Earl Linthicom, Sound/Audio

There are still a few opening that are in need:

- Cake Escorts (Three positions pending)
- General LeJeune's Message

243rd Ball Ticket Information:

- Tickets are $50 per person
- Make checks payable to:

- When mailing in your send it to:

Finally, on a somber note I have to report the passing of another Veteran who lost is battle with depression. Roger Greely was a husband to a high school friend, a known class mate of mine, a father and grand father. Unfortunately, he was battling depression and anxiety and lost that battle and took his life.

According to the VA in a study from 2000 - 2010, this occurred at a rate of 32.1 per 100,000 US Citizens for men and 28.7 per 100,000 US Citizens for women.

Let's do our best to reach out to our fellow veteran's, especially at this time of year. While we are celebrating Veteran's Day and our Birthday, reach out and let them know they are not alone. Only we know what we have gone through and that may be the key to lifting them up and breaking through those walls.

Honor, Courage, Commitment
